

Risk Assessment Experimental Method Form for Undergraduate and Taught PG Projects

All operations/procedures being assessed (give specific details):

Using a Proxmark 3 to read RFID cards. A Proxmark is a low voltage device.

Risk Category Rating:

E – very low level of risk.

Known or expected hazards associated with the activity:

No known risks.

Precautions to be taken to reduce the level of risk:

- Take frequent breaks
- Proper seating and lighting

Training prerequisite:

No training required.

Risk remaining:

Emergency procedures:

Detail references if any:

For the Project Worker and Project Supervisor:

We have carried out a risk assessment for the above operation/procedure in accordance with those guidelines as detailed in the School Safety Handbook.

Signature of Project Worker Katherina Keogh

Date 07/0/2025

Print name of Project Worker Katherina Keogh

Signature of Project Supervisor Liam Meany

Date 10/0/2025

Print name of Project Supervisor Liam Meany

Print name of Technical Officer assigned to Project

N.B.

- Copies of completed forms should be submitted to the Project Supervisor and the Technical Officer assigned to the project.
- A signed copy of the completed form should be kept in close proximity to the project bench/space where the project is taking place.